

FY 2022 New Project Scorecard

The results of the FY 2022 New Project Scorecard will be used by the Independent Review Committee (IRC) as a baseline evaluation and ranking tool for CoC Program allocation decisions. The resulting score will be used in conjunction with FY 2022 Ranking Policy to prioritize projects included in the final CoC Consolidated Application and Priority Listing to HUD.

Scoring Matrix

The Scorecard aligns with the questions outlined under each of the scoring objectives:

- Effective Program Design
- Financial Management Capacity
- System Performance Improvement
- Timeliness
- Promoting Equity and Inclusion
- Coordination
- Domestic Violence (DV) Bonus

Scoring Procedure

There are a total of 100 points available for projects applying for new funding through the CoC Bonus of the annual NOFO and new funding through the Unsheltered NOFO. A total of 125 points are available for new projects applying for funding through the DV Bonus. Each question includes a score distribution, where projects can earn up to the possible score.
